

MISS RANKIN STARTS RACE FOR SENATE SEAT

Miss Jeannette Rankin, member of Congress from Montana, who recently came out in a speech denouncing copper interests in her State, has started her campaign for the Senate.

This, at least, is the construction which is put upon her activity by some of the newspapers of Montana. It has been political gossip here for some time that Miss Rankin intended to run for the Senate against Senator Walsh.

Miss Rankin has gone to Montana, and dispatches say she was given a great reception at Butte by a crowd of 10,000.

How to wash your white sweater

Whisk the Lux flakes to a lather in very hot water. Let your sweater soak until the water is comfortable for the hands. Work it about in the suds, do not rub. Rinse in three waters just comfortable for the hands. Dissolve a little Lux in the last rinsing water. Spread on a bath towel and dry in the sun.

TROOPS IN HAWAII ASK FOR LETTERS FROM U. S. GIRLS

That Hawaiian music sounds better from the stage in America, and that the South Sea belles are not as alluring in their native haunts as might be judged from the imported representations, were facts brought to the surface in a letter reaching here today. The missive is addressed to American girls in general, and is signed by homesick American soldiers on the island of Oahu. It reads, in part, as follows:

"OAHU, Hawaiian Territory, July 21.—Girls of the good old United States, listen to our plaintive call and then write. We are away out here in the middle of the broad, blue Pacific, called the melting pot of the world, and we are lonesome.

"Dreamy-eyed native ukulele players, with their ever-alluring smiles, make a big failure when they try to take our thoughts away from real, honest-to-goodness girls in God's own country. The whole thing is we want to correspond with some of the girls back in the States. In return, we promise to write real newy letters telling all about the sights and things here. What do you say, girls? Are you game?"

SWEETS BY THE TON FOR NAVY'S RECRUITS

GREAT LAKES TRAINING STATION, Aug. 16.—Caramels, 100,000 packages; milk chocolate, 100,000 packages; sweet chocolate, 12,000 packages; salted peanuts, 50,000 packages, and sugar-coated peanuts, 50,000 packages.

That reads like an order for all the girls' seminaries in the world, but it is all intended for the 11,000 jackies in training here. In addition, they eat 240 gallons of ice cream, in cones, daily.

TEMPLE H. TWEEDY GETS LIEUTENANCY

Temple H. Tweedy, of 3416 Thirteenth street northwest, has received a commission as second lieutenant of field artillery at the officers' training camp at Plattsburg, N. Y. It was announced today.

Tweedy is twenty-seven years old, son of Frank Tweedy, of the United States Geological Survey. He was educated at Central High School and Yale University, and has a distinguished record as an athlete. Before entering the army young Tweedy was in business in New York.

"Brownatone" Tints Your Hair in a Minute

Preferred to Slow Acting Dyes

The straightest road and the shortest cut to the certainty of an attractive and beautiful appearance is the use of "Brownatone" hair dyes.

"Brownatone" preparation will instantly change gray, streaked, faded hair to the softest and richest golden brown, medium, dark brown or black—just as you wish. Just comb or brush it into your hair. Impossible of detection, will not rub or wash off, and needs retouching only as the hair grows out. "Brownatone" hair dyes are far superior to "dyes," and is absolutely harmless in every way.

Sold by all drug stores. If you are offered a substitute, save annoyance by refusing it and ordering "Brownatone" direct from the makers. Insist on "Brownatone" at your hairdresser's.

A trial bottle and interesting booklet will be mailed for 10 cents. Mention shade desired.

Address: The Keston Pharmaceutical Co., 609 Coogan Ridge, Covington, Ky. For sale in Washington by O'Donnell's Drug Stores, People's Drug Stores, and other leading dealers.—Advt.

Your white wool sweater! Your rose colored one!

Tub them just as soon as they become the least bit soiled.

The white one need not shrink to be its own little sister!

The rose one need not lose its pretty color.

Your sweaters' two enemies

Rubbing roughens and tangles the delicate wool fiber—makes it mat and shrink. Alkali weakens the wool threads—makes them break easily.

The new product for washing woollens—Lux—has no free alkali, and dissolves the dirt without any rubbing!

That is why your sweater comes from its Lux bath fluffy and smart as when it was new. Lux cannot injure anything that pure water alone will not harm.

Remember your sweater when you shop today! Order Lux from your grocer, druggist, or from any department store. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

Miss Kite, Who Is the Daughter of Surgeon I. W. Kite, U. S. N., Will Spend the Remainder of August at Atlantic City With Her Mother.

Lieut. Todd Weds Sally Bolling at Charlottesville

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Sally Stuart Bolling, daughter of Bartlett Bolling of the University of Virginia, and the late Anita Stuart Bolling, to Lieut. Thomas Hardy Todd, U. S. R. C. Mr. Todd was recently graduated from the training camp at Fort Myer and holds a commission in the field artillery.

The wedding took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock in St. Paul's Church, Charlottesville, Va. The Rev. Beverly D. Tucker, Jr., officiated, assisted by the Rev. H. B. Lee. Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends were present.

Among the guests from out of town were Attorney General Gregory and Assistant Attorney General and Mrs. G. Carroll Todd, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom. The bride belongs to one of the oldest and most distinguished families of Virginia. Bollingbrook, the old Bolling home in Petersburg, is one of the hand-somest and most historic places in Virginia. The bridegroom was formerly an assistant United States attorney in the Department of Justice. In his college days he was a football captain of the University of Virginia, and was graduated in law from that college in 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hertle, of Gunston Hall, expect to come to Washington today for a short visit.

Mrs. Gibson Fannestock and her daughter, Miss Margaret Fannestock, who have been at Banff Springs, Canada, will leave there this week and arrive in Newport the first of next week.

S. N. The ceremony will be performed at noon Saturday in St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Ardmore, Pa.

Miss Theodora Keith Lillie will be her sister's maid of honor. Miss Frank C. Roberts will be the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will include Miss Edith Earle, Miss Katherine Tenney, Miss Katherine Z. Ogden, and Miss Roberta Wiley, sisters of the bridegroom. Donald Lincoln, of Cleveland, will be the best man. The ushers will include William Fillebrown, of Washington; Horace Wyman, of Worcester, Mass.; Benjamin Bullock, 3d, Philip T. Smith, Dr. Harold Austin, and Henry Austin.

The wedding will be a quiet one, with the bridegroom and ushers in military uniforms. A small reception will follow at Brimwood, the home of the bride's parents in Haverford. Mr. Willey is an officer of reserves.

Host at Luncheon.

The Norwegian Minister, Mr. Bryn, was host at a luncheon yesterday at the Willard. He had nine guests, all diplomats.

WOMEN SHAVE UNKNOWNLY

The razor would solve the superfluous hair problem if merely removing hair quickly and without the use of a depilatory.

Whether you use a razor or questionable depilatories the result is the same; you only remove hair from the surface of the skin, which causes it to grow out again coarser and stiffer. The only common-sense way to remove hair is to attack it under the skin. DeMiracle, the original sanitary liquid, operates on this principle. It alone contains certain ingredients which give it the power to rob hair of its vitality. It does this by absorption. DeMiracle works equally well for removing hair from face, neck, arms, under and limbs to prevent it from showing through stockings.

Insist on the genuine DeMiracle. It is the only depilatory that has a money-back guarantee in each package. In 50c, $1, and $2 bottles at all toilet counters, or direct from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price.

FREE booklet mailed in plain sealed envelope on request. Write for it today and read it before you make another application of any depilatory. DeMiracle Chemical Co., Dept. K-22, 2014 N. Y. and 129th St., New York—Advt.

Miss Shuey Wed To Diplomat in St. Matthew's

With a brilliant company of diplomats, officials, and society folk in attendance, the marriage of Miss Dorothy Shuey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Shuey, and Christopher F. Smith took place at noon today in St. Matthew's Church.

The wedding had its measure of international interest, as the bridegroom is a member of the Norwegian diplomatic service, temporarily attached to the legation in Washington. The Norwegian minister, Mr. Bryn, was among the guests.

The bride, who made her debut in the Capital several seasons ago, was one of the prettiest buds of her season.

The ceremony, which was followed by a supper served by the Rev. Father Buckley, assistant rector of St. Matthew's. Later there was a breakfast at Raucher's. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sister, Mrs. Charles Kappler, as matron of honor. Miss Edith Grace and Miss Amy Bennett were bridesmaids.

Ushers All Diplomats.

William Matthe Johansen, secretary of the Norwegian legation, was best man for Mr. Smith and the wedding party was preceded to the altar by six ushers, Mr. de Morganstjerne and Christian Ogt, of the Norwegian special mission; Count de Sartiges, Jules C. F. Blondel and M. de Mandier, of the French embassy staff, and Selmer Andersen, chancellor of the Norwegian legation. Mr. Andersen took the place of Nicolai Aal, Norwegian consul in New York, who was sent unexpectedly to London.

The church was charmingly decorated for the wedding, the lighted tapers on the altar and quantities of white flowers combining with the green of giant palms to form a picturesque setting for the bridal party. Standards of Easter lilies marked the pews reserved for the family and intimate friends, Easter lilies and bride roses were used in profusion in the chancel and the prie dieu where the bride and bridegroom knelt during the mass was placed under an archway of palms. The wedding marches, and a well selected program were given on the organ, with the accompaniment of a string orchestra.

Dressed in White Satin.

The bride's costume was of white satin combined with tulle. The skirt, with its overdress of tulle, cut in points, was elaborately embroidered in seed pearls, and the bodice of satin was cut in eton jacket effect and embroidered in pearls and silk. The bodice closed in front over a vest of tulle and beautiful duchesse lace, and the decollete was outlined by a little collar of tulle and pearls. The train, three and one-half yards long, was of satin garnished with pearl and silk embroidery and turned back at the end in a cuff held in place by a bowknot of pearls.

The bride wore a tulle veil, very long and full, which fell over her face when she entered the church, and was thrown back after the ceremony. It was held in place by a simple wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white orchids, gardenias, and lilies of the valley.

Matron of Honor's Gown.

The matron of honor wore a gown of pale blue chiffon over white satin, the skirt pleated and trimmed with picot edged folds of the chiffon. The draped bodice and the three-quarter length sleeves were embroidered in blue and crystal beads, and a shaped piece of the beaded chiffon was caught up in the back to form the chic and original collar and crossed in front in surplice effect. The chiffon girdle was caught by a beaded buckle.

The bridesmaids' frocks were of pale pink chiffon over satin, with skirts pleated onto shallow yokes. The draped bodices, and the three-quarter length sleeves, were garnished with a picture haze of silver net, with high puffed crowns, trimmed with huge roses of pink crepe. They carried shaded pink roses, with showers of wee Sweetheart roses.

At the reception Mr. and Mrs. Shuey received with the bridal party, the latter wearing a becoming costume of cream-colored net and fillet lace. Her hat was a mushroom shape of white satin, trimmed with white alge's, and a corsage bouquet of orchids completed her costume. The decorations were of pink and white roses and garden flowers, with the usual complement of palms, ferns, and asparagus vine.

To Return To Capital.

After a short wedding trip Mr. Smith and his bride will come to Washington to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shuey pending orders from his government. It has not been decided yet whether Mr. Smith is to return to duty in Norway or remain in Washington attached to the legation staff.

The bride's traveling costume is a suit of navy blue satin, simply but becomingly made, and with it she will wear a chic black hat trimmed with alge's.

One of the prettiest weddings of the summer was solemnized at noon today at St. Paul's Episcopal Church when Miss Faith N. Brown became the bride of Lieut. Perry E. Taylor, U. S. R. C. Rev. Robert Talbot performed the ceremony in the presence of a small company of relatives. The wedding was very quiet because of the serious illness of the bride's mother. There were no attendants. The bride wore a smart gown of dark blue serge and satin and a becoming white hat. She wore a corsage bouquet of Sweetheart roses and orange blossoms and carried a small white prayer book.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Taylor left immediately after the ceremony for Harpers Ferry, where they will remain for several days. They will stay with the bride's mother until Lieutenant Taylor receives his orders. He just completed a course at the reserve officers' training camp at Fort Myer.
